Treasurer’s Report

The Treasurer reported that our finances were in a healthy state with the receipt of annual subscriptions from many members.

General Business

Activities

The new Activities program for the coming year has been completed by P Trott and will be sent to all members soon. It is available on the website.

Christys Creek Proposal

AATs position opposing this was read to the meeting. The President also read out a letter from Greg French which is on the FlyLife website.

There was discussion about concerns with helicopter access, the cultural and social value of the area, and individual profiting from it.

Moved M Aspinall seconded D Rimmer “That the club supports AATs position on this proposal” carried without dissent.

Other Business

D Hemmings will report to the next meeting on the survey of members undertaken at the August meeting.

Reminder of the Cressy Trout Expo October 2nd.

Tasmanian Casting Championships

D Hemmings was the only participant from the club and would like more members to participate next year. He won the wet fly section and was third overall.

Miena Shack

A new hot water element will be installed soon.

Vice President

The committee selected John Smith to fill this position.

Stone Hut Dam proposal

J Smith said that this offers the opportunity to create a new fishery as well as an irrigation scheme. He and M Crosse will attend a workshop on the Ouse River assessment.

John Fowler Fishing in Friendship Trophy

The draw for round 1 was conducted with 20 members participating.

The meeting was followed by a very entertaining presentation by David Young on his recent trip to South America.
