General Business

Activities

The Macquarie weekend is scheduled for 30-31 October. Those wishing to attend need to contact Craig Granquist.

Snowy Ranges – J Smith said there was the possibility of a second day this year, also the possibility of a midweek trip. John will circulate some possible dates.

Christys Creek Proposal

3 members attended a meeting with Inspiring Place. D Young gave a brief report explaining that helicopter access was being dealt with first. If this is rejected the whole proposal will be rejected. All interest groups were asked the same questions with response returned for additions or amendments. Our representatives gave a strong anti response, as did Ashley Artis.

Survey of members

D Hemmings gave a summary of responsesL

- Meetings, fly tying, meeting others, guest speakers, videos were the most useful, club administrative matters the least
- Future direction, strong support for purchase of video equipment
- Field trips, mixed response
- John Fowler Trophy, mixed response

- Other suggestions, Sunday casting, guest tyers, no more members
- New shack/L Sorell shack, mixed response including buying a shack in the Bronte area and in NZ.

Tasmanian Fly Fishing Championships

M Crosse reported on a successful weekend on the Meander, Huntsman, S Esk, and Arthurs.

Miena Shack

T Dell thanked those who have volunteered to assist with the roof modifications. He now has a full crew. The work is scheduled for the 5-8 November.

Meeting closed 8.04pm

The meeting was followed by Bruce Barker demonstrating the tying of NZ style glo-bugs.
