Activities

Great Lake 'shark' weekend – P Murphy gave a brief report on an excellent weekend led by Bruce Barker.

Western Lakes – D Young was the leader, no report as yet.

Dee Lagoon March 3-4. D Chote will be there during the preceding week.

Salmon Ponds Casting Day – the date for this is April 1.

RSL Open Day March 18 – Brian West and John Spencer will give tying demonstrations on behalf of the club. Members are encouraged to drop in.

Commonwealth Fly Fishing Championships

A number of members were involved in various capacities. Malcolm Crosse put a tremendous amount of effort into it resulting in a very successful event. Some members who escorted fishers gave brief reports.

John Fowler Trophy

To date the secretary has received results from only two teams. The President appealed to members to try to complete their two rounds as soon as possible.

Meeting at Miena re Penstock Lagoon

Members who were present reported that Mike Stevens and John Diggle were confronted with some hostility. An emissions expert spoke about the damage outboard emissions can do to waterways. J Diggle said that the number of fishers needed to be reduced if the fishery was to be sustained.

D O'Brien handed over a copy of Mick O'Farrell's "A Passion for Trout" to the club.

The meeting closed 8.30pm and was followed by a preview of one of Oliver Edwards' DVDs.
