Activities Report

- John Smith said the Fly Casting Day at the Salmon Ponds went off very well despite the inclement weather. About 35 turned up plus children. Wet and dry courses were held. Noel Wilson won the wet, David Hemmings and Zuie Howard the dry. John Spencer, John Smith and Andrew Hood were thanked for organising and cooking the food. David Hemmings and Tim Munro were thanked for running the casting competitions. Chris Rothe thanked David and Tim for the time they also put in showing the children how to cast.
- At the Liawenee field weekend we will have Brian West and John Spencer demonstrating fly tying between 10am and 12.30pm Sunday.
- Ian Stokes and Lyndon Cubbins said that the Liawenee fly tying weekend is overbooked and is all set to go. Andrew Hood spoke about extending the weekend for those that can afford the time, he has 4 interested so far.
- Stephen Butler said that June 25th is the fly tying day at the RSL, he needs to know numbers.

Tasmanian Fly Tyers' Club

- Brian West spoke about the fly tying lesson for beginners. He said it will be limited to 10 and he wants to know if you know anyone that would like to attend. The cost will be between $60 and $80, all gear will be supplied. The Club now owns 10 fly tying kits.<sup>1</sup>
- Andrew Hood said the annual dinner is being organised for Saturday July 30th, probably back at the Cascade Reception Centre.

Meeting closed at 7.53 pm.

After the meeting Brent Bowerman showed us how to tie various flies using deer hair.

Next general meeting Monday 20th June at the Lenah Valley RSL.
