General Business

Activities

Salmon Ponds casting day – a successful day with about 30 members and family attending. Competition results:

Margaret Knight Dry Fly - 1st P Murphy, 2nd L Wilkins & D Miller, 3rd T Munro.

Hedley Griggs Wet Fly – 1st P Murphy, 2nd L Wilkins, 3rd T Dell

Western Lakes trip – David Young gave a brief report. Only he and P Langton went and due to some confusion with the map no fishing was done for the first 24 hours. They then went to Huntsman Lake.

Annual Dinner – this will be held at the Lenah Valley RSL on Saturday May 26th.

Tiger Hut weekend – June 1-3. L Cubbins reported that he had 7 attending so far with room for about 16 altogether.

Snowy Ranges Family Day – June 17.

John Fowler Trophy – reminder to try and complete your fishing by the end of the season. D Hemmings said he had had a great day fishing with Dave Chote on the Dee.

Other Business

AAT Meeting – M Crosse reported that there was concern about the future of Arthurs Lake because of the Midlands irrigation scheme.

Six more webcams will be installed at locations such as Augusta, Pine, Burbury, Great Lake and Penstock.

Penstock and outboards – IFS will put forward strong recommendations for the next two seasons with new regulations for the season after. They are very concerned about the fragility of the fishery.

Lake Sorell – IFS are struggling with the carp problem.

Meeting closed 8.00pm.
