Treasurer’s Report

The Treasurer tabled a list of members who have paid their annual subs for checking. Some of those who paid at the AGM have not received a receipt.

General Business

Activities

1. April 7th 2013 – Annual Casting Day and spit roast at Ross Scrim’s.
2. L Fergus – we can have a weekend there, probably early March
3. L Burbury – we have an invitation from the NW Fly Tyers. The committee will follow this up.
4. Macquarie weekend – C Granquist has obtained the use of a well equipped cottage on the Mt Morriston property, sleeps 10, $30 per person for the weekend. This will give us extra river access.

Other Business

AAT are keen for clubs to be involved with the Clean Up Australia day. A letter will be sent out soon.

Miena shack – the stove flue has been cleaned.

I Stokes raised the Penstock IFS proposal. M Crosse said it had been discussed at the AAT meeting and the letter will be published in the next Vice. There was some discussion about 4-stroke vs low emission 2-stroke outboards.

South Esk – AAT has some concerns about water flow

The meeting was followed by a tying demonstration from David O’Brien.
