3. Dee Lagoon weekend – this coming weekend.

Other Business

Vice

M Crosse complimented Doug Miller on the latest edition.

Doug requested that members send him photos of boat modifications for an article for the next edition.

Fly Tying

D O'Brien has offered to source materials for members. This will be discussed by the committee before the next general meeting.

Arthurs Lake

AAT have supported our request for fish stocks to be surveyed to determine if action is required. J Diggle said it was too late to do much this season but they would look into it next season.

The meeting was followed by an informative talk from Chris Wisniewski from IFS. Chris reported on a wide range of activities and plans to improve the fishery.
